- J. Handler killed or injured.
 - 1. In the event the handler is killed or injured and it becomes necessary to remove the K-9 from the scene, the watch commander will be notified immediately.

- B. During building/structure and vehicles searches for the detection of drugs, the following procedures should be followed for maximum effectiveness and safety of the dog handler:
 - 1. All persons on the premises shall be removed or placed in one room prior to the dog search commencing.
 - 2. All plain view drugs should be secured prior to the dog search.

X. Technical Procedures

The utilization of the canine teams are authorized without additional supervisory approval if an offense involves the apprehension of a fleeing suspect that has committed a felony or serious misdemeanor or poses a threat to human life, occurs in the presence of the K-9 handler and is within the boundaries of the City of Covington. Proper handler control procedures shall be utilized at all times. The police K-9 teams may also be utilized for the following purposes:

- A. Tracking Operations
 - 1. The pursuit of suspects fleeing the scene of a crime is initially the responsibility of the first officer on the scene. Once the officer has lost sight of the suspect, and justification exists, the officer may request K-9 assistance through the watch commander or supervisor.

It is important that the officer(s) mark the location where the suspect was last seen, so that the K-9 can pick up the scent as soon as possible. The area where the track is to begin must remain uncontaminated. Therefore, unnecessary walking over the area shall be avoided.

2. The canine teams can be used to great advantage in searching for missing persons, physical evidence, or property which may have been recently handled. The principles regarding the marking of the location and protection of the scene are the same as indicated above.
3. Prior to searching wooded areas, the area should be isolated by establishing a perimeter. This will assist in preventing unauthorized persons from entering the search area and prevent a suspect from fleeing.

B. Building Searches

1. The K-9 teams may be utilized to search buildings believed burglarized and buildings occupied by a suspect endeavoring to escape police apprehension. Using the K-9 teams to search a building minimizes the probability of an officer being injured.
2. Prior to using any K-9 teams to search a building, an announcement must be given indicating the intent to use the K-9, unless it is tactically unsafe in a given situation.
3. The announcement shall be given three (3) times in a loud and clear voice when practical, and should be given over the police cruiser P/A system when possible. The K-9 officer will utilize the following warning: Covington Police K-9--come out and announce yourself now or I will release the dog.
4. During the search of a building, no one will be allowed to enter the building except at the direction of the handler performing the search.
5. Officers should not search a building if a K-9 team is responding. Officers should secure the perimeter and should not enter the building, unless ordered to do so by a supervisor.

C. Arrest/Apprehension of Suspects

1. Police canine teams may be utilized in the following:
 - a. To affect an arrest when the escape of a suspect will pose a threat to human life or officer safety.
 - b. To prevent the escape of a person(s) the police officer has reasonable belief has committed a felony or serious misdemeanor.
 - c. A burglary in progress call, should the suspect flee on foot or remain hidden in a building or structure or any other area that poses a threat to officer safety.

- d. At felony vehicle stops that occur during his tour of duty when the occupant(s) pose a threat to human life.
 - e. In special circumstances, the K-9 may be used at the direction of the watch commander to apprehend a person trying to harm themselves (i.e. suicide).
2. There may be situations, other than those listed above, where the use of the dog is justified, however, the following factors must be considered:
- a. The seriousness of the offense.
 - b. The potential risk of harm to officers and others.
 - c. The suspect's actions (i.e. was the suspect actively resisting or attempting to evade arrest by flight).

XI. ESU and Tactical Operations

The K-9 teams may be utilized in certain operations to maintain perimeter control or clear a building of suspects. The K-9 may also be utilized in other tactical situations with the approval of the watch commander or ESU commander present at the scene when the K-9 is deployed.

XII. Public Relations

All requests for public relations demonstrations will be routed through the commander responsible for the K-9 assignment or the Patrol Division Captain.

XIII. Crowd Control

- A. The K-9 teams shall not normally be used at peaceful demonstrations.
- B. The K-9 teams may be used for crowd control upon approval of the watch commander to protect life or property during a riot or other major unauthorized gathering that cannot be controlled by other means. In these situations:
 - 1. The K-9 shall be short leashed at all times unless no other means are available to protect an individual from serious bodily injury.
 - 2. The handler shall not normally initiate any offensive action except to affect the arrest of a person who is violent, combative, or to guard against imminent loss of life or serious bodily injury.

XIV. Canine Bites

Dog bites inflicted by the K-9 shall be documented on a Police Response to Aggression/Resistance form and a supervisor will be summoned to the scene for investigative purposes. Victims shall be afforded medical treatment as soon as reasonably possible.

XV. General Procedures for K-9 Officers and Other Officers

- A. Officers shall refrain from approaching, petting or agitating the police dog, except during training and upon approval of the handler.

- B. Physical contact ("horseplay") between anyone and the handler shall be avoided in the presence of the dog, as it could be perceived by the dog as an attack on the handler.
- C. The dog is trained to apprehend, on command, fleeing suspects or suspects who may be attacking the handler or the dog. Should an officer be confronted by the dog, the best tactic is to stand still since any sudden movement or attempted flight may cause the dog to engage.
- D. Under normal circumstances, officer shall not attempt to interfere with or call off a dog which has been given the command to apprehend by the handler. Should the handler become incapacitated or incapable of controlling the dog, another officer at the scene must take action to ensure that excessive force does not occur or that innocent persons do not become injured by the dog.
- E. Officers assisting the K-9 teams shall keep loud noises, excessive talking or radio traffic to a minimum while the K-9 teams are actually working. If at night, avoid lighting up the canine teams with spotlights or flashlights.
- F. Any time the K-9 teams initiates a traffic stop and a search of the suspect vehicle becomes likely, a back-up officer shall be summoned to the scene to serve as a back-up for the K-9 officer.

This SOP supersedes any SOP previously issued.
